

Using decodable texts in the classroom

1

Review letter-sound correspondences

2

Practise word-level reading (including irregular words)

3

Read the title and make a brief prediction

4

Listen to each student read individually, while other students read aloud to themselves

5

Discuss the text with students

6

Allow students to keep their copy for independent practice if they are ready

